ECB Missing Children Guidelines

If a child goes missing, the following guidelines have been devised to clarify the actions to take:

Ensure other children in your care are looked after appropriately while you organise a search for the child concerned

Inform the child's parents, if they are present at the event, or nominate an appropriate person to telephone them and advise of the concern. Reassure them you are doing all you can to locate their child. Remember the child may contact the parents directly so this action is very important

Organise all available responsible adults by areas to be searched. It is best to take a short time to organise the search properly so that all places are searched fully

Send searchers immediately to any exits to ensure the child has not left, and to any obvious potential danger spots such as nearby lakes or rivers.

Search the area in which the child has gone missing including changing rooms, toilets, public and private areas and the club's grounds

Request all those searching to report back to a nominated adult at a specific point

This nominated person should remain at this reference point and make a note of events, including a detailed physical description of the child. This should include approximate height, build, hair and eye colour as well as the clothing the child was wearing and where and when they were last seen. All of this information will be required by the police. If the search is unsuccessful you should then contact the police

A report should go to the police no later than 20 minutes after the child's disappearance is noted, even if the search is not complete

If the police recommend further action before they get involved, follow their guidance

If the police act upon the concern, always be guided by them in any further actions to take.

At any stage when the child is located, ensure you inform all adults involved including the parents, searchers and the police if, by then, they are involved

All missing child incidents MUST BE notified at the very earliest opportunity to the Club Welfare Officer, who must immediately notify the County Welfare Officer, and they must notify the ECB Safeguarding Team
